WINE SELECTION We of the Terroiriste Wine Club seek out wines that are produced using either of two viticultural practices: Biodynamics or Organic Viticultural {be it "Certified" or simply faithful practicing}. Simple.

TERROIR is a sense of place. The dual drives behind both Biodynamics and organic viticulture are 1) a sense of practicality and respect for the environment that sustains us (let's stop poisoning our own home); and 2) a wish to express the unique character of a given environment. Given that Soif was founded as a reaction against mass-produced wines that could be from anywhere, the Terroiriste Wine Club is an opportunity to further explore an emerging vinous world that represents a return to partnership with rocks, soil and weather.

*We do ship to enlightened states, additional charges apply
